

BARDIC BEDLAM

Hosted by The Barony of the Lonely Tower

April 28, 2018 9:00am - Midnight

Springfield Community Center

Main Street, Springfield NE 68509

Come one, come all! Be ye Bards, Minstrels, Jongleurs, Troubadours, Trouveres, or Waits. If you think you have not talent, or just too shy to try, become a Patron and support your fellow entertainers.

This event is open to everyone! Come teach a class on what a well-dressed traveling musician would wear during your time period. Give an informative lecture of music theory or how an instrument was made. Teach a class about the background of your favorite bardic song. Even more fun, set a Challenge! Challenge your fighter friends to tell the tale of their favorite battle. Challenge a bard to come up with words to your favorite medieval tune, or bard challenge a musician to come up with lyrics. It is Bedlam after all!

Bards from all over the kingdom will make their journey to the Barony of the Lonely Tower for this event.

If you would like to set a challenge or teach a class, please contact the Bardocrat:
Master Dolan Madoc of Harlech email: jkostisin@cox.net

Autocrat: Zafara BaBurr email: marie_joan@aol.com text number: (402)813-7702.

Crash Space Coordinator: Mistress Jehanne Benning email: sgordong@cox.net

Site Opens 9:00 A.M on Saturday and closes when the last Bard standing has no more voice to sing. (Usually very very late Saturday night or extremely early Sunday Morning). There is no camping available, but crash space is available. Site is DISCREETLY wet.
